COMMUNITY HOMES
Serving Adults with Developmental Disabilities

OUR MISSION

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, Promise Community Homes supports the foundational needs of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) by providing safe, affordable, and well-maintained neighborhood homes.

Our model was developed from the belief that people with IDD are defined by their own strengths, abilities, and inherent value - not by their disabilities.

YOUR IMPACT

Imagine living on $900 per month. This is the reality for most adults with IDD who live on limited supplemental security income, pricing them out of most rental housing markets. This is why YOU are so important! With more than 80 homes, we provide an affordable, long-term solution to the housing crisis for more than 300 adults with IDD. Through your support, Promise Community Homes will continue to provide safe, affordable homes where adults with IDD can live their lives to the fullest!

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Somewhere Over the Rainbow Gala is Promise Community Homes' largest annual fundraiser - and is in its 27th year. For 50 years, the organization has provided neighborhood homes for St. Louisans with IDD, allowing them to stay near their families and in their communities. Somewhere Over the Rainbow sponsorship benefits include seating at the gala to entertain clients, customers, and/or family and friends, and various other marketing benefits.

We are excited to see everyone for our 50th anniversary celebration at The Ritz-Carlton, St. Louis!

27TH ANNUAL SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW GALA

THE EVENT

Mary Wilson

Mary Wilson (left), with St. Louis Arc caregiver Marybeth, in her home provided by Promise Community Homes.

For 25 years, Mary Wilson has lived in a Promise residence, guaranteeing a safe, secure, and affordable home that supports her independence and incredibly active lifestyle. Mary's home is less than a block from the Dautel campus, mere steps from our Wolff Community Center. "I love my two roommates!" Mary said. "I walk to the center every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. I am happy living there. It's easy to walk places."

As we celebrate 50 years, we also celebrate our residents - cheers to Mary's 25 years and well wishes for many more active years to come!
